

JO EDUCATION is a non-profit organization founded on June 25, 1986, in Catania, Sicily.

Formerly known as Sistemi Formativi Confindustria Catania and originally called Enfapi Catania, for several years it has developed its business on behalf of Confindustria, the main organisation representing Italian manufacturing and services companies.

In 2010 it joined JO.

Its mission: JO EDUCATION was set up to be a business angel for start-ups and technology transfers.

In addition, JO EDUCATION, only on request, holds high profile training courses and all its training activities are always validated by its Scientific Committee.

JO EDUCATION aims are:

- the promotion of a culture of "lifelong learning" inside the local companies and in the labor market;
- the support and development of innovative programs and projects, as well as good practices transferable to a regional, national and international level.
